Introduction

Grammar is a very old field of study. Did you know that the sentence was first divided into subject and verb by Plato, the famed philosopher from ancient Greece? That was about 2,400 years ago! Ever since then, students all over the world have found it worthwhile to study the structure of words and sentences. Why? Because skill in speaking and writing is the hallmark of all educated people.

Lesson by lesson, this book provides basic instruction in the eight parts of speech—nouns, pronouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections—as well as the standard patterns of English sentences.

All students of English, be they native speakers or those who are studying English as a second language, will profit from the fundamental introduction and review of grammar provided by SANGAM TUTORIALS' PRIMARY ENGLISH GRAMMAR (Book 1).

All students of English, be they native speakers or those who are studying English as a second language, will profit from the fundamental introduction and review of grammar provided by SANGAM TUTORIALS' PRIMARY ENGLISH GRAMMAR (Book 1). Helpful marginal notes throughout the book have been provided to reinforce existing skills and call attention to common problem areas.

We wish you every success in your pursuit of English proficiency.

What is Grammar?

Here's an old children's rhyme about the eight parts of speech of English grammar. It gives you an idea of what grammar is about. Read and remember it.

Every name is called a noun,
As field and fountain, street and town.

Pronoun

In place of noun the pronoun stands,
As he and she can clap their hands.

Adjective

The adjective describes a thing,
As magic wand or bridal ring.

Most verbs mean action, something done,
To read and write, to jump and run.

Verb

How things are done the adverbs tell,

As quickly, slowly, badly, well.

The preposition shows relation,
As in the street or at the station.

Adverb

Conjunctions join, in many ways,

Sentences, words, or phrase and phrase.

Conjunction

The interjection cries out, "Heed!"

An exclamation point must follow me!"

Interjection

Exercise 1
